

Omnium Radio CIC GDPR Statement

In the information statement below is everything that you, our website user needs to know about how we process any data collected from you by Omnium Radio CIC via our website www.omniumradio.online

Content	Page
Competition Entries – Form Submissions	1
Contact Form Submission	1
Website Membership – Free or Paid Subscriptions	1

Competition Entries -

(Form Submissions): If you enter any of our prize competitions using a submission form you would be asked to submission some of or all of the following information which is personal to you; Name, Address, Email Address, Date Of Birth, Telephone Number and sometimes your home address. This information is stored on our website server and email inbox and is only used during the time of the competition you have entered, This information is not shared with any outside company and is only accessible by Omnium Radio CIC management or appointed members of staff via a password encrypted computer. The information supplied is deleted from our website server as soon as the competition has been completed.

Contact Form Submission

Using a contact submission form you would be asked to submission some of or all of the following information which is personal to you; Name, Address, Email Address, Date Of Birth, Telephone Number and sometimes your home address.

This information is stored on our website server and email inbox and is only used to complete the requested contact between Omnium Radio CIC and yourselves.

This information can be held up to 1 year by Omnium Radio CIC and will not be shared unless authorised by yourselves, of which we would ask you first for the permission to share any of the information you submitted.

The information submitted is only accessible by Omnium Radio CIC or appointed member of staff via a password encrypted computer.

Website Membership

(Free or Paid subscriptions): If you sign up to our website as a member you could be asked to submit some of or all off the following information; Name, Address, Telephone Number, Date Of Birth, Email Address, Profile Photo & Location. This information is stored on our website server Wix.com and is only accessible via a password encrypted laptop by Omnium Radio CIC management or appointed members of staff.

This information is held through out the duration of your account being Active, upon closure / deactivation of your membership account by either yourself or Omnium Radio CIC admin, this information would be deleted.

For all paid subscription membership accounts you will be re-directed to Paypal.com to process your payment(s) they handle all our cash handling to Omnium Radio CIC and we do not have access to any of you bank details, Please see PayPal.com website for more information on how your information is processed with them.